PROJECT INSTRUCTIONS

To get started, cut a piece of white watercolor paper to approximately 2.5"w x 7"h and a piece of black card stock to 2.75"W x 7.25"h.

STEP 1 Add color to the stamp by using the brush tip of the Bruynzeel pens

STEP 2 Spritz the stamp with water and then press on to the watercolor paper

STEP 3 Stamp the image three times. Cleaning the stamp on a paper towel after each stamp

STEP 4 Activate the watercolor by adding a drop of water to the dry pans and and begin loosely painting color on the background of the bookmark

STEP 5 Fill in some of the areas on the stamped design using the Sakura Stardust and Moonlight Gelly Roll Pens

STEP 6 Create faux stitching along the border of the bookmark using the Sakura Micron Pen

STEP 7 Adhere the white watercolor paper on top of the black card stock using the glue stick and round the edges with scissors if desired

STEP 8 Create a pattern on the border of the black cardstock with the pens

STEP 9 Punch a hole in the top of the bookmark using the 1/4" punch

STEP 10 Add a ribbon though the hole at the top and apply adhesive pearls where desired
